

Indiana's telephone privacy laws have stopped all unsolicited phone calls to my home. I am completely happy with how this law has been able to regain my privacy at home with the phone calls I receive. The FCC should not implement any laws that would lessen the effectiveness of current Indiana Telephone Privacy law.